

House Resolution No. 4732

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Jenni Miller Croy, who was inducted into the Pittsburg (Kansas) State University Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame on Saturday, September 1, 2007, in honor of her performance as a basketball player while a student there, between 1993 and 1997; and

Whereas, a 1993 graduate of Kearney High School, Jenni Miller Croy stands as one of the top women's basketball players in Pittsburg State University history, as she became a four-time all-conference selection at the school in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, and she was honored as an NCAA Division II all-American her senior year after averaging nearly eighteen points a game; and

Whereas, Jenni Miller Croy finished her 111-game college career with 1,809 points, which ranks her second on the Pittsburg State Gorillas' all-time scoring list, and her 364 three-pointers still ranks as one of the best career totals in NCAA history (all divisions), and her eleven three-pointers in a game still stands as one of the best all-time single-game efforts; and

Whereas, Jenni Miller Croy is beginning her first year as head women's basketball coach at North Central Missouri College in Trenton; and

Whereas, previously, Jenni Miller Croy served as an assistant women's basketball coach at North Central Missouri College, where she helped the school post a 30-6 record and finish sixth at the National Junior College Athletic Association Division national championships; and

Whereas, since graduating from Pittsburg State University, Jenni Miller Croy also coached high school basketball, at Maysville and Bethany; and

Whereas, Jenni Miller Croy enjoys the love and support of wonderful family which includes her parents, David and Rita Miller, her husband, Wes Croy, and her children, Lathan, Salem, and Kaegen:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere congratulations to Jenni Miller Croy on the illustrious occasion of her being inducted into the Pittsburg State University Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jenni Miller Croy.
